Dear Sir/Madame,

I refer to the complaint that you submitted to my Office on 18th November 2025, by which you requested my assistance/help regarding a situation that occurred in Germany, and wish to inform you the following:

According to the Commissioner for Administration Laws of 1991 to 2022 my basic competence is to investigate complaints regarding decisions and actions taken by public authorities of the Republic of Cyprus, as to whether these actions violate: the provisions of a Law, the human rights of the complainant or the principals of good administration and proper behavior.

In view of the fact that your complaint is not directed towards specific decisions and actions taken by public authorities of the Republic of Cyprus, I inform you that I cannot offer you any assistance.

I remain at your disposal for matters that fall within my jurisdiction.

Yours sincerely,

[REDACTED]

Commissioner for Administration and the Protection of Human Rights (Ombudsman)
