[REDACTED]

Dear Sir,

Complaint with File No: C/N 951/2024

I refer to the complaint you submitted to my Office on the 15/05/2024 regarding the conditions of your arrest and detention, as well as the behavior of the involved Police officers against you on the 14/05/2024, and wish to note the following.

In the context of the investigation of your complaint, I sent a letter to the Chief of Police and requested to be informed about their position on your allegations.

With their reply letter, detailed information was brought before me, regarding, amongst others, the enforcement of the arrest warrant that was issued against you, the views of the Police related to the behaviour of the Police officers involved, and other information about your case.

I thoroughly examined all relevant information brought before me. After reviewing the facts presented, alongside the applicable laws and regulations, I have determined that no further intervention on my part is justified at this time with respect to your case.

Therefore, you are kindly informed that the investigation of your complaint is terminated.

In any case, however, I remain at your disposal for any other matters that fall within my competences.

Sincerely,

Commissioner for Administration and the Protection of Human Rights
